Billboards

Monday, Senator Fred Farr wrote Legislative Counsel in Sacramento requesting he prepare a bill which will enable California "to participate fully in the Federal Highway bonus with respect to advertising along the interstate system of highways."

California, if it complies with the Federal billboard restrictions, will be eligible to receive from $9,000,000 to $15,000,000. Last year Farr sponsored a billboard control bill for the state, and lost. This is the first official move in a campaign that will be fought to bring limited billboard control to California highways through compliance with the federal bill. With a bonus of millions as a talking point, Farr, the California Roadside Council, and conservation organizations through the state have a better chance of success.

The Carmel Planning Commission and the Carmel City Council have passed resolutions in favor. You will be called upon to write letters and contribute to the California Roadside Council's Campaign Fund. If you want to do it now, the address is 12 Garces Drive, San Francisco 27, California.

Round-up

Monday's open meeting of Point residents on annexation to Carmel revealed that of the 70 present a substantial majority did not favor annexation, nor did they believe that the Carmel Point Property Owner's Association, which has petitioned the city council for permission to circulate an annexation petition, represented the majority of Point residents.

Whether they will fight it out at Wednesday's council meeting or work out an understanding with the property owner's association was not determined.

Tuesday, when the county board of supervisors set November 24, 2:30 o'clock, for a public hearing on Carmel Knolls subdivision, Admiral C. W. Fisher gave notice that he and a group of Carmel and Carmel Valley residents would protest half-acre rather than acre minimum residence sites. Neighboring Valley property owners who live in a one-acre minimum lot zone, and Carmel Green Belt supporters have fought this for months. The Carmel Planning Commission and the city council also fought for acre minimum but finally officially bowed to the subdividers' wishes.

The city council on Wednesday evening will receive an appeal from Charles G. Stoops asking

Pine Cone Recommends

The Ballot Measures:

1. Bond issue for farm and home loans to veterans, self-liquidating, has been working for 36 years. Yes.

2. Bonds to provide loans to school districts. There are sound arguments against this but the urgency to alleviate the chronic crisis in our schools over-rides them. Yes.

3. Bond issue for land purchase and construction for our University of California, other state colleges, correctional and mental institutions. It is as much our responsibility to vote this issue as it was to support the bonds for our Carmel Unified School District. Yes.

4. $50,000,000 bond issue for San Francisco Harbor improvement; $10,000,000 issue for loans to local agencies for development of small craft harbors. Self-liquidating. There is an opening in the small craft harbor phase of the bill for abuse of natural areas, but there must be public hearings before the small Crafts commission, and legislative approval, before local loans are granted. Our conservation organizations should be able to block undesirable development. Yes.

5. Permits legislators to fix their own salaries by statute but not in excess of average salaries of county supervisors in the five most populous counties. And the legislators control the salaries of the supervisors of the five most populous counties. We'd vote for a salary increase for our legislators but not this way. No.

6. Re-establishes requirements of legal notice publication of proposed bond issue laws. No.

7. If one-fifth of the legislators and/or the governor should be wiped out in a wartime disaster, this amendment would empower the embattled survivors to convene in a safe place, make temporary appointments, call elections, and in general carry on. Yes.

8. This would enable residents of only 54 days (a year is the present requirement) to vote for president and vice president only, requiring separate ballots, creating pain and confusion in the county clerk's office and no little expense. No.

9. Eliminates the 30 day recess of the legislature in odd-number years. This recess gives our legislators a chance to come home, explain what they are up to, and hear what we think of it. No.

10. In condemnation of land for schools or airports, this would permit immediate possession of property before court trial. This seems a violation of fundamental rights. No.

11. Authorizes cities and counties to sell bonds for street and road purposes to be repaid out of state gas tax allocation. The state allocation to the counties and cities is mainly for maintenance. If it is obligated for improvement bonds (on which the citizens will not be given an opportunity to vote) it won't be available for maintenance. Shortly, there is a demand for another increase in the gas tax. No.

12. Permits member of legislature to become notary public. He's not permitted to hold any other state office or job; why notary? No.

13. Makes state superintendent of schools appointive, by the state board of education, which is now appointive, and should be elective. At least, keep the superintendent elective. No.

14. Now salaries of elective city

Candidates

Knowland for Governor. At this time a little conservatism is essential.

Powers for Lieutenant Governor; Jordan, Secretary of State; Kirkwood, Controller; Button, Treasurer. These incumbents know their job and have done it well. There is no excuse for replacing them.

Hillings for Attorney General.

Knight for U. S. Senator.

Teague for Congressman, on his record. For the same reason, Pattee for Assembly. These two especially have earned the support of this district.

Municipal Water District. It is the responsibility of the proponents to show that our situation, which seems satisfactory, would be improved under the proposed district. This they have not even begun to do. No.

For Member of Board of Directors of Proposed Municipal Water District, Orval Mead. We all know this young man who was raised in the community. He can be counted upon to protect Carmel's interest as far as his powers on the five-man board will permit.

Three Carmel Men Seriously Injured

Thomas Bunn Jr., 21, of Pebble Beach, Samuel Stanton, 21, and George Wightman, 20, both of Carmel, received major injuries in an automobile accident this morning at 1:30 o'clock on Highway 1 just north of Oliver Road.

According to the California Highway Patrol report, Bunn, driver of the car, was driving south on Highway 1, when 100 feet north of Oliver Road he failed to negotiate a curve and hit a guard rail and wire. The car flew across Oliver Road and hit an oak tree 12 feet from the ground. Bunn and Stanton were ejected from the car. The three young men were taken to the Peninsula Community Hospital by the Monterey ambulance. Stanton is reported to be in a critical condition by the Highway Patrol.

Public To Vote On Christmas Windows

Public vote will decide winners in Carmel Business Association's Christmas decoration contest this year, according to Walt Pilot, chairman of the annual Yule window and exterior beautification project in the commercial district.

At Christmas time ballots will be obtainable from Carmel merchants. On these members of the public will designate which windows or exteriors in their estimation should be awarded first, second and third places. Each person may submit one ballot. A first prize of $15 and a second prize of $10 will be given to two lucky persons who submit choices to Carmel merchants.

After the voting period ends,

California Cities Back Council On Liquor Licenses

The Board of Directors of the League of California Cities endorsed yesterday the Carmel City Council's move to get state legislation so that the number of liquor licenses issued within a city be commensurate with the population.

The endorsement came the last day of the annual convention of the League in Los Angeles, attended by Carmel City Councilman Everett May, City Clerk Larry Rose, Chief of Police Clyde Klaumann, Street Superintendent William Askew, Planning Commissioners George Willox and Herb Blanks.

Richard Carpenter, executive secretary of the League will attend a meeting, arranged last month, for November 10, 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Carmel City Hall, when State Senator Fred Farr, Assemblyman Alan Pattee, Russell Munro, director, Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and the Carmel City Council will discuss possible legislation to bring about recognition of cities' rights and problems in the issuance of liquor licenses, now entirely under the jurisdiction of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

Carmel City Council, waging a losing fight to prevent its city from becoming bar-ridden, became more acutely aware of their helplessness under present state liquor administration with the granting of a new liquor license in the city to the premises of the Old Hearthstone on Ocean Avenue last month.

A resolution, which resulted in scheduling the November 10 meeting, and the endorsements of League of California Cities, was prepared and sent to the Governor of the State, Senator Farr, Assemblyman Pattee, Department of Alcholic Beverage Control, and the League of California Cities.

Don't Miss Kiwanis Conjured Spooks At Sunset Field Friday

The hobgoblins and other weird and wonderful creatures at the Kiwanis Club annual community Hallowe'en party tomorrow evening at 7:00 o'clock on Sunset School playfield will parade past three judges: Mrs. Floyd Harber, president of Carmel Elementary Schools Parent-Teacher Association; Mrs. Walter Helm, president of Junipero Serra School Mothers' Club; and Paul McKinstry, originator of the free Hallowe'en party for all Carmel children, tots through teens. The judges will pick the wearer of the best costume who will win a $25 Savings Bond, grand prize.

Prizes for the best costume in each of the five age classes will also be awarded after the judges have made their choices. Pete Johnson will be master of ceremonies.

Cider and doughnuts are provided for everyone attending the party. Each child in costume will receive a gift and a balloon. Students of the eighth grade at Sunset are serving hot coffee and hotdogs from a booth on the playground as they did last year. Proceeds are for the class treasury.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

The Monterey County Symphony Orchestra opened its Thirteenth Season to a full house at Sunset Auditorium Tuesday night. A feeling of anticipation was in the air and the sympathetic audience was quick to recognize progress in the local orchestra's development. There were new faces beside the familiar in the personnel and from the opening crash of the strong Wagner Meistersinger Prelude to the last notes of the Schumann D minor Symphony interest was intensified by a just pride in our county organization and its growing future.

Though I had just returned from Britain where I heard an outstanding performance of the Beethoven Missa Solemnis with the Philharmonica Orchestra and a huge Midland Chorus for the opening concert of the Leeds Centennial Festival, I found that the performance Tuesday did not, as could have been expected, lose in comparison. Indeed, the string and woodwind sections, led by Francesco Mazzi, considering their number and constant shuffling compared with a steady professional group, were vibrant with tone of excellent quality. Incidentally we were glad to hear the greeting Mazzi received.

An ovation awaited Gregory Millar who verbally, in the Britten Variations, indicated the various groups; that of the timpani in the Liszt Concerto quite distinguishing themselves, as well as the others, while Liszt's orchestral effects seemed forerunners of modern harmonic treatments. When one considers that most of the foremost musicians of his day were directly influenced by his brilliancy and guidance, the tendency of brushing off Liszt as romantically old-fashioned, while Bach and Mozart hold their own, is nonsensical. It is still a truism that real appreciation can only be through perception of individual creative expression. Performed as Egon Petri did with his consummate art at the piano—with large hands like Liszt that know no technical hurdles—the Liszt Concerto last Tuesday received response from the audience that was certainly real and not old-fashioned. The feeling Petri gave its

HOLLISTER 'BALERS INVADE CARMEL SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Crucial league games are on tap for both the varsity and junior-varsity football squads this Saturday afternoon at Carmel's Bardarson Field when the Hollister Haybalers come to town to test the high-flying Padres. In the 12 o'clock preliminary tilt, the junior-varsity teams of the two schools will put their undefeated records on the blocks and after the final whistle there will be just one team perched atop the league standings. Both the Hollister and Carmel JV squads have breezed through league opposition with very little difficulty so far this season and Saturday's crucial should go a long way toward establishing a league champion. On the way to the top, Hollister has clubbed Pacific Grove, San Lorenzo, Gonzales, and King City while the Little Padres have whipped King City, Live Oak, San Lorenzo, and Gonzales. Coach Rainer indicates he will go with a starting unit of Frank Mayo, quarterback; Bill Coleman and Mike Draper, halfbacks; David Hansen, fullback; Paul Rice, center; Fred Bucher and Nick Molitor, guards; Toby Edson and Brian LeNeve, tackles; with Doyle Clayton and Pat Boyle at the ends.

Saturday's varsity clash will match the once-beaten Hollister speedsters against the undefeated Red & Gray unit which is making a valiant effort to successfully defend the B-League title. Both the Padres and 'Balers handled San Lorenzo and Gonzales with nearly identical scores but Carmel clipped King City, 12 to 0, while the 'Balers lost to the Mustangs, 14 to 6. In their loss to King City, the Haybalers were severely handicapped by the loss of halfback Cothrell and All-CCAL guard Russ Medina. Both boys will be ready for action against the Padres this Saturday afternoon. Hollister operates from a pro-type T-formation with slot backs, flankers, and split ends. In Gil Solano, the 'Balers have one of the best passers in the league and the senior quarterback is a deft ball-handler and dangerous runner. The Hollister line is big, mobile, and experienced with two All-CCAL performers, John Cueba and Russ Medina, back for another shot at the Padres.

Saturday's game should be a hard-fought battle up front with the likes of Carmel's Al Eaker, Norm Colman, John Wilkin, and Bill Hicks colliding with Medina and Cueba. Hollister's superior backfield speed will be a tough problem for the Padres but the Carmel backs run with good power and are all good pass receivers.

Carmel's opening offensive unit will be manned by quarterback Russ Wise; halfbacks, Ron Faia and Dennis Peavey; fullback, Dare Conroy; ends, Bill Hicks and Phil White; tackles, Chris Wilkin and Sam Farr; guards, Mike Marquard, Deen Rowe, and Al Eaker; center, Dave Vincent. The defense will start White and Hicks, ends; John Wilkin and Norm Colman, tackles; Van Treat and Al Eaker, guards; Captain Steve Gann and Larry Dufur, linebackers; Russ Wise and Dennis Peavey, halfbacks; and Craig Smith, safety.

While the Padres are having at it in Carmel Gilroy will be invading King City in another league crucial, San Lorenzo will be at Pacific Grove, and Gonzales will go after victory number one at Live Oak.

CARMEL RACKET SQUAD WINS BIG ONE AT PACIFIC GROVE

Carmel High's classy tennis squad ended the dual meet season in grand style last Saturday as the Padre racket-wielders blanked arch-rival Pacific Grove, 7 to 0, in the "Big Game" of the fall tennis season. Encouraged by Frank Wallace's upset win over PG's Barry Baskin, the Carmel lads played inspired tennis to make a clean sweep of all the matches. Before running into Wallace's smashing overhead game, Baskin had breezed through 15 straight matches in CCAL play without tasting defeat.

Results: (Carmel listed first) Frank Wallace defeated Barry Baskin 3-6, 7-5, 6-4; Pete Hanson defeated Leonard Pflanz 6-1, 6-2; Dyer Drake defeated Allen Frey 6-2, 6-2; Vitya Chakrabandhu defeated Jim Keenan 6-3, 3-6, 6-4; Chris Keeble defeated Doug Backberg 7-5, 4-6, 6-3. In doubles play, Hanson and Drake defeated Baskin and Frey 6-4 and 6-4; Keeble and Chakrabandhu defeated Smith and Mozaffafi 6-0, 6-4.

PADRES WIN PAIR AT GONZALES

Following the pattern of the Little Padres who clipped the Spartan Babes, 19 to 6, Carmel High's varsity dealt out the same treatment to the Gonzales varsity by a 20 to 6 margin. Coach Fred Rainer's junior-varsity squad took over game control from the outset against the Little Spartans and had things pretty well under control after the first quarter. However, the Padre varsity dropped behind in the first quarter by a 6-0 margin and had to put on a strong rally to take a shaky 7-6 lead at the end of first half. The win-hungry Gonzales squad was definitely upset-minded as it outplayed the Big Padres for the first two quarters. Carmel's two-platoon football wore down the smaller Spartans in the second half and the Red & Gray had the game pretty well sewed up at the end of the third quarter.

Coach Clair Burne's Spartan varsity took advantage of a Carmel fumble in the first quarter to march to the opening touchdown of the game with Charley Duncan ploughing through the middle for the last two yards. Gonzales attempted a running play for the conversion but the Padre line rose up to stop the runner at the line

"WEAR BALLOT STUB," SAYS LEAGUE

When voters in the Fifth District (the Monterey Peninsula) go to the polls on Tuesday, they will find a sign on the table, Wear Your Ballot Stub, placed there, with the consent of Mr. Emmet McMenamin, County Clerk, by the League of Women Voters. The League has also supplied the pins for this purpose.

The League of Women Voters hopes that voters will cooperate in their Get Out the Vote campaign, by wearing this ballot stub, which is handed to the voter after he has marked his ballot. Seeing people wearing these ballot stubs will serve to remind others to vote.

In cooperating with the League, Mr. McMenamin said, "I hope this idea catches on and spreads throughout the county. Too many people simply forget to vote."

Mildred Caton Opens Sport Togs Shop

Mrs. Mildred Caton is the owner of Carmel's newest sportswear shop for women, Mildred's Sport Togs, opening today in a completely remodeled location on Dolores Street, near Fifth Avenue, across from the Carmel Post Office. The premises, occupied formerly by physicians, has been remodeled by Mrs. Caton to provide a spacious, modern store and office at street level, adjoining the parking lot opposite the Post Office.

Mrs. Caton brings to her new enterprise extensive retail buying and executive experience. She formerly operated her own shops in Stamford, Connecticut, and in New York, worked as buyer for two of the country's largest retail chains, and was associated with a number of New York specialty shops.

She will stock casual sports clothes, knits, accessories, sweaters, slacks and some imported knitted ensembles, all in a moderate price range.

Mrs. Caton had been a frequent visitor to Carmel during her eastern seaboard career years, and decided eventually to establish herself here. Mildred's Sport Togs is the result.

Kids Express Art Urge On Windows

"Anything but pumpkins" is the motto of Sunset School seventh and eighth grade art students decorating the outside of store windows on Ocean Avenue this week. They are all especially interested in art and have elected to spend the last period of each school day studying this subject." They also stay after the bell rings," says their teacher Joe Broadman.

Mr. Broadman thought it would be fine if these students "brought art to the community." He also thought that their poster paint designs would discourage other less desirable window decorations on Hallowe'en. "The merchants were enthusiastic," he reports.

So starting at 2:40 o'clock each afternoon the young artists have been imaginatively painting fantastic designs on Carmel's main street display windows, anything but pumpkins.

BROWN CAUGHT FLUSHING $10 BILL DOWN TOILET

Cornelius Brown ,34, a resident of Seaside and Carmel Craft Center janitor, was arrested yesterday by Carmel police on a charge of theft. Police had received a report from Paolina's Coffee House that for several days money was missing. The coffee shop owner noted the serial numbers of bills in the cash receptacle on Monday. On Tuesday police marked bills. They also watched persons entering and leaving the building early in the morning at the time the thefts were suspected to take place.

Yesterday morning police followed Brown, only person to remain in the Craft Center a long time. They found him at another place where he worked. After questioning, he asked to go to the rest room where police found him attempting to flush a $10 bill down the toilet. It was one of the marked bills. In his wallet they found a $5 bill with a serial number corresponding to one of those noted by the proprietor.

beautiful cadenza and intermittent lyrical themes and brilliant cascades raised an interpretive beacon for the many mere intellectual players in the modern concert world.

Following intermission the orchestra played Benjamin Britten's Variations on A Theme and Fugue by Purcell, which are treated with all the strange sounds that characterize most of his compositions, tending to almost obscure the original themes, making the effect one of disjointed scraps, so contrary to the melodic continuity of Purcell's music. Interesting, however, from the point of view of experiment in sound, Britten is intriguing if not profound. The D minor Schumann Symphony that completed the program was a contrast in its logical procedure of themes and developments definitely defined. If the last part is somewhat orchestrally crowded, it would seem such a fault is better than too thin an orchestration, even though its tendency is to dominate with too much of the same coloring, but many parts of the symphony have plenty of sensitive variety. The audience recalled director and orchestra with warm appreciation.

Between the Wagner Prelude and the Concerto, Millar announced that as a memorial to Vaughn Williams, the famous British composer whose passing took place quite recently, his composition on the old English tune "Greensleves" would be played; also as a tribute to the late Katherine French. The playing of this was a highlight of melody and beauty delicately and reverently rendered and one would like to have had silence instead of applause when it finished.

The same program was given in Salinas on Monday. The next pair of concerts will be on December 8 and 9. Meanwhile, Gregory Millar is in high request, for besides the Little Symphony of San Francisco, he is conducting an orchestra with a series of five concerts in San Leandro, and goes to Portland to conduct on November 9.

Rollin Bortle

Rollin Cantwell Bortle died on Tuesday as a result of an automobile accident on the Carmel Valley Road. A broken rib punctured his heart, according to County Coroner Chris Hill. A possible heart attack may presumably have caused him to lose control of his car but did not cause death was the statement of the physician performing the autopsy, Mr. Hill said this morning.

Mr. Bortle, a former investment banker in New York, came to live in Robles del Rio in 1947. He was a member of the Union League Club of New York City and All Saints' Church in Carmel.

A son, Roy B. Bortle of Robles del Rio, survives.

MAY COURT CARMEL

SAMSON AND LAFRENZ

Miss Hallie Samson and Adolf C. Lafrenz are new owners of the O'Keeffe building and business on Dolores Street, including the stock of home furnishings in the shop on the ground floor. They plan no alterations to the building but to lease the shop, Mr. Lafrenz said this morning.

Over the store is an apartment and office occupied by Michael Franke, an accountant. He will remain in this location under the new ownership.

The building at one time housed the Carmel city hall upstairs and the post office downstairs. The furniture store was first established by Gump's of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Keeffe purchased the business from Gump's. The new owners bought the property from Mrs. O'Keeffe.

Truth About Water Committee Questions Seaside Agreement

Agreement among director candidates to permit Seaside to withdraw from the proposed water district is an "amazing act of political effrontery," Corum Jackson of Carmel said today in a pre-election statement.

Jackson is Carmel chairman of the Truth About Water Committee oposing formation of the proposed Monterey Peninsula Municipal Water District.

"This agreement has no legal standing and the idea of these candidates making such an agreement in advance of the election to determine whether the voters even approve of the district is an affront to Carmel residents," he said.

The unlimited taxing power of the proposed district has always been the main objection to the district among Carmel voters, Jackson declared.

"Carmel voters are tired of the confusion which has been created by the promoters of the district and, in my opinion, will reject the proposal as a danger to property values," Jackson said. "There is absolutely no limit on the taxing power of the directors. There is absolutely no limit on the amount of debt which the district can incur. There is no limit to the extent which the directors can arbitrarily raise water rates. And there is no limit to how long this district will exist and continue to have the unlimited power to tax even if it never acquired a foot of water pipe."

"All of these liabilities together," he continued, "will serve to defeat the unwise proposal, I believe."

Jackson said his Carmel division of the Truth About Water Committee with 100 members was winding up its anti-district effort with telephone calls to all Carmel voters this week.

The Truth About Water Committee has more than 600 members throughout the Peninsula.

Jackson emphasized that the Carmel area with 35% of the assessed valuation in the district would pay more than its share of new taxes to be levied since the area has only 20% of the population within the boundaries of the proposed district.

Mr. Robert C. Hermes, photographer-lecturer, opens the 1958-59 Screen Tour series tonight at 8:00 o'clock in the Sunset Auditorium showing his film called Ranch of the Purple Flowers. The public is invited. Tickets at the door.

Shelia Goldes Has Lead In Mystery At The Studio

The Studio Theatre on Dolores Street celebrates Hallowe'en Friday night with its opening performance of Agatha Christie's murder drama, The Mousetrap as a chilling tribute to All Saints' Day. This mystery has been running for six consecutive years in London, and holds the record for the longest run of any legitimate drama in the history of the English stage.

In The Studio production Shelia Goldes of the Actor's Company of Boston will play Molly, wife of the owner of the English country house where an odd assortment of characters assemble. Miss Goldes has played with several companies of the East Coast ,and she appeared as Maggie in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof with a Boston theatre.

Molly's husband Giles, is played by Dale Harris who comes to the Peninsula from Merced where he acted with the Merced Community Theatre. Clifford Berry plays young detective Trotter, and was last seen at The Studio in The Psyche of Diane O'Day.

David Eldridge familiar to Peninsula audiences, appears as the baffling Paravicini, and David Mayo, who has recently been performing as a character dancer at the Hollywood Bowl, appears as the exotic Christopher Wren. Completing the cast is Laura Kennedy, Bud Houghton, and Virginia Beattie.

Following the Hallowe'en opening, The Mousetrap will play a limited engagement on Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The ever-availability of divine, impartial mercy and justice will be explained at Christian Science services on Sunday.

One of the selections from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" is this from Proverbs: "Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding" (9:6).

Passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (6:18): "To suppose that God forgives or punishes sin according as His mercy is sought or unsought, is to misunderstand Love and to make prayer the safety-valve for wrongdoing."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."

ATTORNEY GENERAL
PATRICK J. HILLINGS

U. S. Congressman PAT HILLINGS, a native Californian, a graduate of the University of Southern California law school, a practicing attorney, and a member of the Judiciary Committee of the United States Congress for the past eight years, is eminently qualified to serve California as attorney general. He is a member of the VFW, American Legion, Knights of Columbus, Kiwanis, Ancient Order of Hibernians and other organizations. He knows the law, he knows California and he has a reputation for political courage, integrity and leadership.

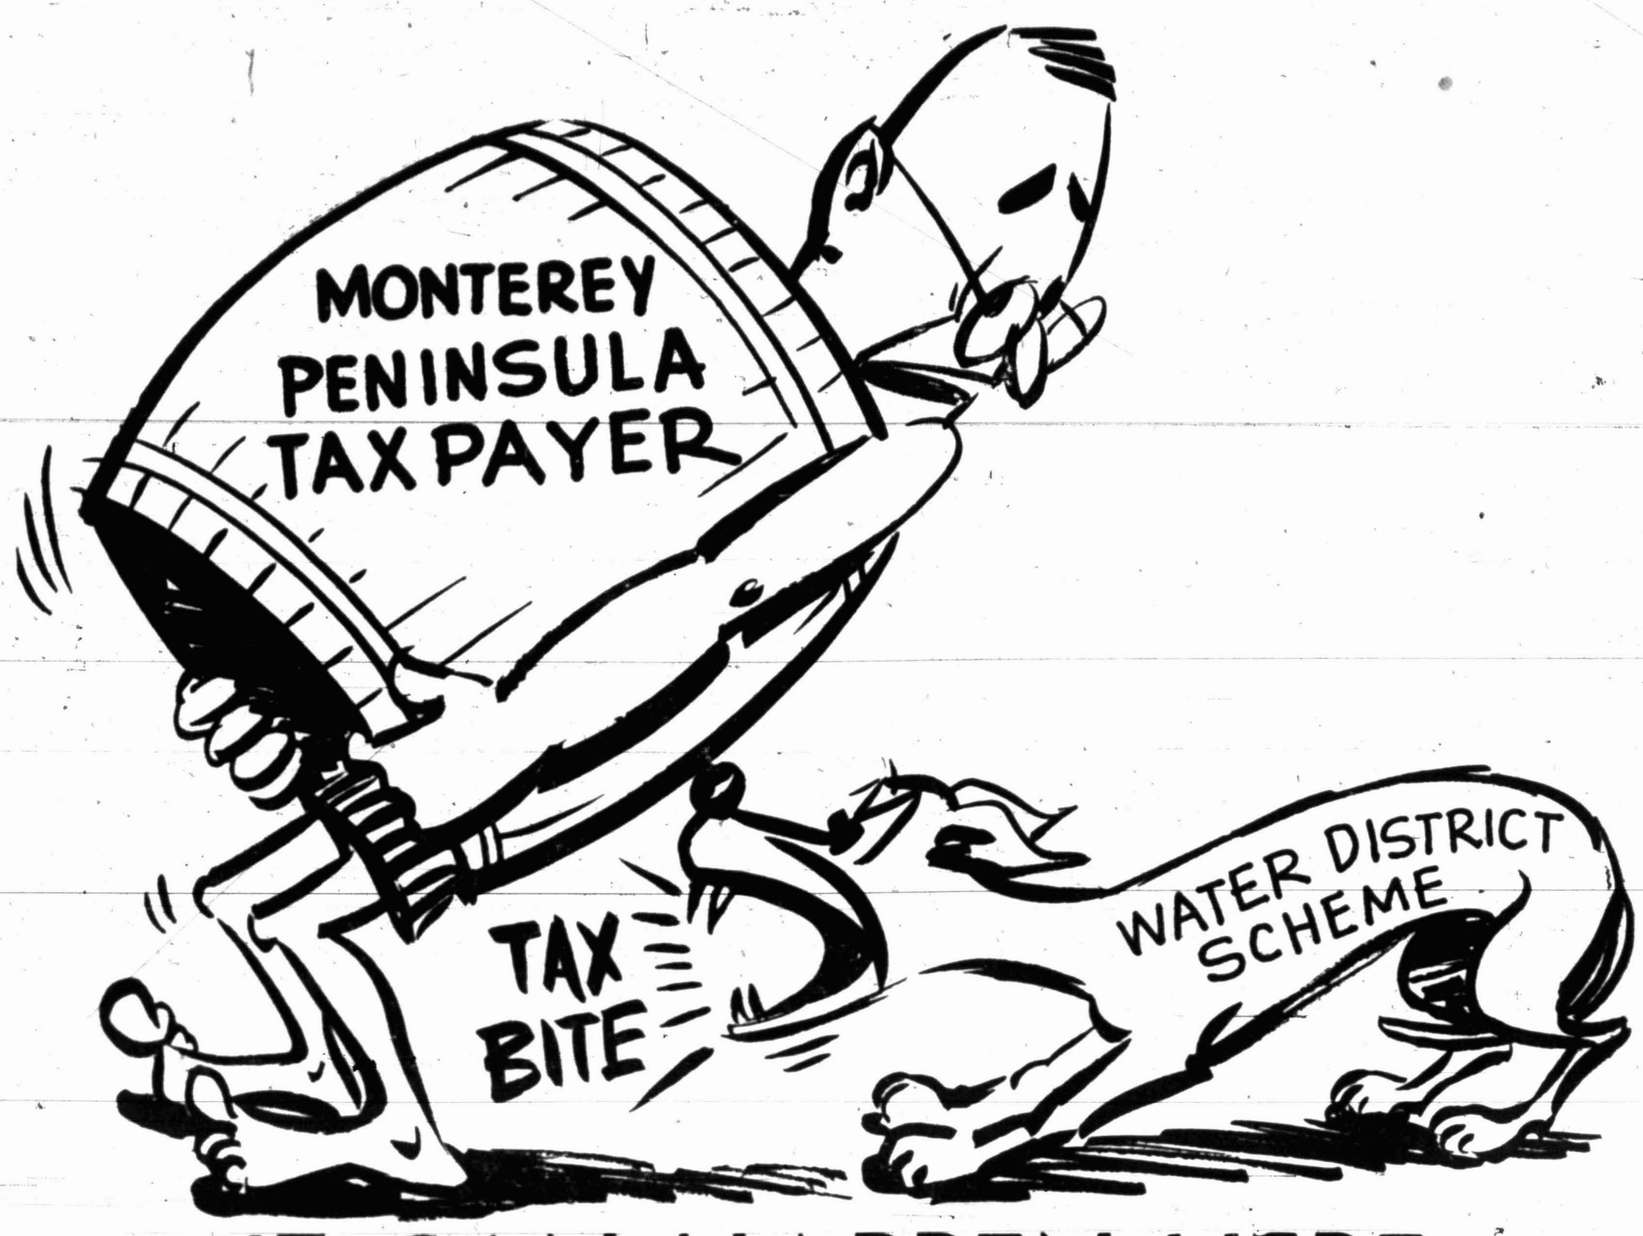
—Pat Hillings for Attorney General Committee



IT CAN HAPPEN HERE UNLESS YOU VOTE "NO" ON THE WATER DISTRICT SCHEME

The Promoters of this Monterey Peninsula Municipal Water District scheme are out to spend millions to take over the water system here. They hired some financial consultants who figured out that the water rates charged now provide enough revenue to pay off $12,200,000 in bonds. But the company which supplies water to most of the Peninsula says its property is worth more than that, and is not for sale. So off we go into a long costly condemnation suit and if the court fixes a price greater than $12,200,000 it will take higher water rates to pay off the bonds. The price may easily reach 18 million plus another 12 million in interest on the bonds. Water rates will skyrocket. You think they're high now? Under this district kind of political operation they can go out of sight.

HIGHER WATER RATES! HIGHER WATER RATES!

HERE'S WHAT CAN HAPPEN TO YOU

NEW PROPERTY TAXES to pay for endless "studies" and "surveys" and to foot the bill for a legal fight that may go on for years.

MORE BONDS than we can even guess at now to pay for the water systems. Certainly more than $12,200,000 and probably 18 million plus at least another 12 million in interest before the bonds are paid off.

HIGHER WATER RATES because the revenue at present rates will not pay off a big enough bond issue to cover the cost of the systems at a condemnation price.

Prayer Is Vital To World Peace Says Lecturer

Scientific prayer is indispensable to peace, Lona Koch-Meisen of Boston, Massachusetts, told a Carmel audience Tuesday evening.

There is an answer to the world's longing for peace — and that answer is found through spiritual rather than material enlightenment, said Mrs. Koch-Meisen.

A member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, she held that prayer, based on a spiritually correct understanding of God, enables each individual to establish peace in his own consciousness. "From there," she said, "it goes out and becomes the basis for world peace."

On extended lecture tour, Mrs. Koch-Meisen spoke under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Carmel in the church edifice, Monte Verde Street near Sixth Avenue.

In her address entitled "Christian Science: The Answer to the World's Prayer for Peace, the lecturer noted that everyone is seeking for a realization of peace, but that the word "peace" means different things to different people.

"One may recall bells of peace sounding at the end of a war," she declared, "another may think of the end of quarrels and misunderstandings in his surroundings or of the peace of the body which we call health. Again, to a third, peace may mean victory over inner conflicts, the peace and the stillness of one's heart."

Explaining the concept of God and man, held in Christian Science, the lecturer said that God is divine Mind, infinite Life, Truth, and Love. The man of His creating, she said, is the spiritual idea of God — Godlike and peaceful, never an enemy or subject to an enemy.

"When this fact," she added, "is individually recognized as a certainty and when each individual strives daily to love the true concept of man, then we shall have built up a safe and unshakable basis for world peace."

Both health and peace, she said, are divinely-bestowed, spiritual qualities which are ever available to mankind.

She summarized the elements of peace presented in her lecture in these words: "(1) The understanding that Life is God; in other words, that there can be no threat to our real life. This realization annuls the fear that would undermine peace. (2) The recognition that there is one Mind only. This realization annuls the belief that there are millions of different minds with different opinions which can create any kind of warfare. (3) The recognition that God is Love. With this understanding comes the readiness to forgive, the determination not to look back on past mistakes but to live in the present, which means to live in eternity."

She added: "When we know God as unchanging Love and understand that man, God's idea, is the expression of Love, we bring into operation the law of Love, which blesses and brings harmony and peace to all mankind."

SAIL FROM MAINE TO FLORIDA

Three Carmel youths, Chris Williams, Thor Rasmussen and Chuck Lane left Maine on October 21 in a 30 foot sloop to sail to Florida. They purchased the boat while vacationing on a small off-shore Maine island owned by the Williams family. A letter received by Chris' parents, Henry and Mona Williams, on Monday said that the three young men had completed their first day's sail "with nothing to worry about except the temperature which was 18 degrees above zero." They will sail the open ocean to Cape Cod, then plan to take the inland waterway route for the rest of the trip. Their progress is about 30 miles a day and they hope to complete the adventure by Thanksgiving.

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU!

Who wants to be stuck for a NEW STATE TAX ON HOMES? Or a new State sales tax on Food? Or new and higher taxes on Gasoline?

Nobody—of course!

Yet State officials, business economists and tax experts agree that these are the almost certain results of passage of Proposition No. 17—the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill on the November 4 ballot.

No. 17 is called the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill because it would wreck the machinery of State government by its irresponsible tax tinkering.

By reducing the State's chief source of revenue—the sales tax—No. 17 would imperil appropriations for schools, hospitals, aid to needy children and the aged. By hiking California income tax rates to the highest in the nation, No. 17 would drive business from California and threaten job security.

Who'll pay to put the pieces together again if the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill strikes? Middle and lower income bracket people would pay the most—through new and more burdensome substitute taxes at both the State and local levels. Don't let it happen to you!

These, and hundreds of other responsible California organizations agree:

The Time Has Come .

By Kippy Stuart

Everybody knows more than somebody else. I learn far more from my friends than I ever learned from books. The time approaches to plant bulbs. For many years I have planted a cover-crop over my bulbs that are in the ground to give color while the bulbs are working toward flowering. Along comes a friend who gives me an even better tip. She advocates planting bulbs in about ten inch pots, then on the surface of the pots to plant pansies or nemesia. This gives immediate color and the pots can be placed about the house or garden in strategic spots to be enjoyed. When the bulbs are ready to push up with their colors, the pansies or what-have-you, will be through their blooming.

Chrysanthemums are coming along in great strides. We work with these flowers through the entire year hopeful of fall blooming. Dis-budding chrysanthemums is a tiresome chore yet it pays big dividends in supplying larger blooms. One of the hazards of chrysanthemum culture is the tall, spindly plants that seem to shoot up suddenly. If they are not constricted by string and stakes, away they go, biting the dust and furnishing only crooked stems. Usually the first rains destroy the plants and beat them to the ground. Science has come along again with helpful information for home gardeners. In one of our Science magazines, I read recently this headline: "Tall growing chrysanthemums may soon be cut down to pot size through the use of a chemical retardant."

The article, coming directly from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, predicts that something called Amo-1618 will grow mums with shorter stems, normal sized leaves and flowers. As yet there is no trade-name for this chemical and it is not on the market. But believe me, the first time I can come upon this valuable new chemical, I'll let you know.

How to preserve autumn leaves: split end of branch a few inches and place split end in container of four parts glycerin and one part water for a period of two weeks. Another method of preserving autumn leaves: lay branches (or leaves) in a box containing warm sand. Heat more sand in an oven until it is just barely touchable. This warm sand is then sprinkled over branch until branch is entirely covered. The excellence of color preserved is remarkable. Even the deep reds, so difficult to hold, keep pristine and rosy in the hot sand. Now sit around and wait for the fall coloring and if I were me, I'd go up to the high mountains and bring back stunning foliage.

Virgilia Peterson will comment on recent fiction and biography (which she feels reflect the changing world) for members of Carmel Woman's Club at their general meeting on Monday afternoon. Miss Peterson was moderator on the TV program The Author Meets the Critics, and also had her own radio program in New York City. She appeared as guest critic on Invitation to Learning. Her book reviews run in the New York Herald Tribune and she has contributed to the New Yorker, Harper's Magazine and the Ladies Home Journal. She is the author of two books, Beyond This Shore and Polish Profile.

Miss Peterson's program will be followed by tea. Those assisting the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Samuel B. Moore, will be Mrs. H. B. Eckert, Mrs. Clark Drury, Mrs. A. Gordon Burns, Mrs. Wendell Coates, Mrs. Mildred Curti, Mrs. Nora Blair, Miss Sophie Burgdorff, Mrs. Elmer Booth, Mrs. Charlotte White and Mrs. Stephen Olop. The flowers for the tea tables will be arranged by Mrs. F. L. Knudsen.

The Chalk Garden Opens November 7

A play of rare distinction will open on November 7 at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre. It is Enid Bagnold's The Chalk Garden, which was first presented in New York in the fall of 1955 and later played at London's Haymarket Theatre. Kenneth Tynan of the London Observer paid it an extraordinary compliment. "The Chalk Garden," he said, "may well be the finest artificial comedy to have flowed from an English (as opposed to an Irish) pen since the death of Congreve."

Similar praise has been lavished on Miss Bagnold's play by critics on both sides of the Atlantic. The London Times called its reception "triumphant;" Time magazine termed it an "elegantly savage play."

The Chalk Garden is described by its director, Frederick Rider, as a unique mixture of comedy, mystery and philosophy, quite unlike anything done at the Circle in recent years. "It has stimulated controversy wherever it has been done," says Rider, "and frankly, we have hopes that it will do the same in Carmel."

The comedy will play Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through December 7.

VOTE YES
Proposition 18 -- Right to Work

An individual's right to seek work at an occupation of his own choosing is certainly one of the most precious of all personal freedoms.

Associate Justice William D. Douglas of the U. S. Supreme Court puts it this way: "The Right to Work, I had assumed, was the most precious liberty that man possesses. Man has indeed as much right to work as he has to live, to be free, to own property."

Here is what a recent Utah visitor to San Francisco says: "My home State, Utah, has had a right to work law since May, 1955. Since that time, average manufacturing wages have increased more than they have in California, where you still have forced union membership. Utah has had only good results from approving a "right to work" law. Better wages, better business and an end to organizational picketing and compulsory union membership."

For BETTER BOATING—
Vote YES on 4

Proposition 4 is California's opportunity to create a new era of recreational pleasure and Statewide prosperity by developing its harbors — coastal and inland — small and large — for all craft — from outboards to ocean liners. Proposition 4 is a self-liquidating bond issue — costing the taxpayer nothing! It not only provides funds to modernize California's vitally important State Harbor, but in addition makes it possible for communities in every section of the State to develop urgently needed small boat facilities.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

Ruth Galvin Thornburg, Librarian

Whether or not mention is made in these pieces about films, you all remember that we have them? The group we now have is composed of three, all in color. Their titles are Five Faces of Quebec (varied and colorful impressions of the Province of Quebec), Coho Salmon on the Fly (an expert demonstrates the fine points of Pacific salmon fishing), and Winter Carnival (highlights of winter sports across the land). These stay with us until the end of November. Soon we shall have a projector but it is not here yet. We will store and schedule the projector for the County Library and we shall beat the drums for it as soon as we find out when it is coming to back us up in our noise.

Once again the time has come for us to ask parents not to allow their children to come to the library to study unless they really need to use library materials, such as reference books and back issues of magazines. The building is full every evening. We can only accommodate a very few students because our seating capacity is so small. They come tramping in with their math books, or similar impedimenta, all ready to study for tomorrow's classes, and take up room needed by other students who have questions to look up, or special needs satisfied by magazines not found at home. The results are noise, confusion, and kindred evils. Too many people in a small space makes for that sort of thing, and when we have to send a few students home they aren't too happy about it. So help us by refusing to allow your student children to come to the library to study unless they really need to come. It hurts us to have to ask this. We need more room but we do not have it, and the resulting friction makes for short tempers and circles under our eyes.

We have another in the UNESCO series on the arts of other lands and this one is on Ceylon. The text describes the paintings found there on rocks and in temples and shrines. The illustrations are beautiful beyond belief and the book will be out on a table in the reading room for you to read and admire. It will circulate on the examination basis, so if you take it out, do not return it in the regular way, but hand it to an attendant at the desk who will look it over to see if you have been kind to it while you had it. Speaking of being good to books, this rash of colds in this area was pointed up for us when a book was returned the other day. For a book mark which was left in the book, the reader had used a neatly folded tissue and two aspirin tablets. Honestugoodness!

Alexander Smith's book The Mushroom Hunters Field Guide will help you to know which ones are good for you. (Even with the guide, you need to be pretty bold to trust a mushroom you have picked yourself.)

Americans always seem to be moving, and most of us have to move now and then. Making the Most of Every Move is a new book by Garner Dodson, and if anything can take the curse off moving, this book can do it. Read it before you start looking for a new house, and you may decide to stay where you are.

Marion O'Brien has a cookbook which is entitled the Bible Cookbook. Staff members glancing through it saw one recipe which called for potted ham, and we all started wondering where potted ham came from in Bible days, but anyway most of the recipes relate to Bible times. A novel idea for a church supper might be one composed entirely of food cooked according to recipes from this book.

We have fiction, too, but no time to talk about it. Come in and see for yourself.

Pretty Hat Has Extra And Final Run This Week End

Plaintiff in a Pretty Hat, the Hugh and Margaret Williams comedy which pits an assured American newspaperwoman against a wily old Welshman in a duel of wits, will play an extra weekend at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre. It is now scheduled to close on Sunday, November 2.

The play, which features Gail Maitre and Frederick Rider in the roles of pretty journalist and eccentric Earl, has been inducing merriment and nostalgia among a large number of Peninsula residents who have lived or sojourned in the British Isles. Recently a prominent Carmel lady returned to the theatre for the fifth consecutive week end, bringing with her a party of ten. Those who share her enthusiasm for the lively comedy will have only three more performances in which to enjoy it. A new Circle play opens on November 7.

DON'T TAX SCHOOLS
DON'T RAISE TAXES

$118,000,000.00... is the amount of taxes the State Board of Equalization reports you are saved every year by California's nonprofit schools built, paid for, maintained by Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and nonsectarian groups.

$400,000,000.00... is the sum that would be required – again by official report of the State Board of Equalization – to duplicate the school buildings built at no public expense by California's 1,076 nonprofit schools.

To tax them would shift a high percentage of their enrollment into critically over-crowded public schools – at the public's expense!

$346.00 PER PUPIL... is the average cost per year to the taxpayer to educate a child in the public school system, according to figures supplied by State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood.

The State Board of Equalization reports that if these schools were taxed, they would provide less than $1,800,000 in tax revenue. Don't punish schools that are giving the taxpayers the greatest bargain in history–a $118,000,000 tax saving in exchange for less than $1,800,000 in tax exemption. To punish these schools with a tax would punish every California taxpayer.

IT'S UN-AMERICAN... Proposition No. 16 singles out for taxation the nonprofit elementary and high schools sponsored and paid for by Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. It is a PUNITIVE measure. It violates the American tradition of tax-free education. AND ITS PURPOSE IS DISCRIMINATION.

No state taxes nonprofit schools, for the simple reason that they save taxpayers millions of dollars every year in school support – $118,000,000 in California alone. Parents of children attending nonprofit schools pay the entire cost without one cent of state aid.

IT'S UNFAIR... It is unfair to force a family to pay a double tax for education. Parents of children in nonprofit schools pay their full share of public school taxes. To tax their nonprofit schools would be taxing them twice for education.

None of the other 48 states taxes these schools. Tax-free education is an American tradition originating in colonial times.

Nonprofit colleges and universities are not taxed. It is unfair and inconsistent to tax California's 390 Protestant, 643 Catholic and 43 Jewish and nonsectarian elementary and high schools.

WHO IS PROMOTING NO. 16?

A front organization deceptively calling itself "Californians for Public Schools"— which has NO CONNECTION WHATSOEVER with the public schools, does not have ONE public school official or teacher on its committee, has NEVER supported a single public school bond issue, or ever raised its voice to help solve any of the critical problems of the public schools. The sole purpose of No. 16 is DISCRIMINATION.

Tom Brosnan Brings Bride Here

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin Brosnan left Carmel to live in San Francisco this week after a visit here with Tom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brosnan Sr.

Tom Jr. and his bride, the former Corinna Ruth Guess of Sumpter, South Carolina, were married in the chapel at Shaw Air Force Base on October 3 by Father Justin A. Maurath.

Air Force service completed, Tom brought his wife to Carmel for a week before enrolling as a student at Golden Gate Business College in San Francisco. He graduated from Sunset and Carmel High Schools and attended Monterey Peninsula College before entering military service.

His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Jerome Guess of Sumpter and attended Edmunds High School, Columbia College, and Clevenger Business School.

Here last week also to greet the newlyweds and visit her parents was Tom's sister Mrs. Lourdes Roush and her small daughter from Santa Barbara. Tom's brother, Staff Sergeant Daniel Brosnan, who returned last week to the United States after three years in England, made the family party complete. He is now stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base.

His mother, the former Carmela Di Maggio, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Di Maggio of Monterey. Vincent Joseph makes them grandparents for the third time. He is the first grandchild for his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cardinale.

The boy's father, Gasper Cardinale, is a member of the James Rowe Village Shoe Tree sales staff.

Kathy Sunday Breakfast Hostess

Fifty high school and junior college friends of Kathy Mapstead gathered at her home on Sunday morning for breakfast between 8:00 and 11:00 o'clock. Kathy's father, Raymond E. Mapstead, cooked waffles for the guests while Mrs. Mapstead was busy providing bacon and eggs. Fall flowers arranged with Indian corn, which the Mapsteads brought from New Mexico, centered the serving table. Boys and girls at the party discussed the previous day's high school carnival and dance while eating about the TV set in the living room or outdoors in the sunshine.

City Officials At Conference

In Los Angeles this week at the League of California Cities' Conference have been City Clerk Larry Rose, Councilman Everett May, Chief of Police Clyde Klaumann, Planning Commission Chairman George Willox, Planning Commissioner Herbert Blanks and Street Superintendent William Askew. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Abe Cohen of Winnetka, Illinois.

Lions Host "Hallowe'enies"

Carmel Lions Club members were hosts on Tuesday evening to 50 youngsters, sons, daughters and friends of members, and were rewarded by many laughs provoked by the antics and costumes of their guests. The children, in turn, enjoyed themselves if howling and noisemaking are criteria.

Noisemakers, balloons, candies, and prizes from the fish pond were provided for the youngsters.

Dan Yurkovich won first prize for his Red Skelton outfit in the second grade boys or below class. Sally Willis as a spook took first place for the same class for girls.

Glen Kovacevich as a hobo was judged best in the boys over third grade group; Jody Oenning as a geisha girl won in the same division for girls.

Susie Rennels as A Girl From Mars won the grand overall prize.

Lion George Dear was general chairman for the affair assisted by Lions Mike Balazs, Tony Vasconcellos and Vince Torras. Romie Garneau tossed hamburgers and toasted buns. Waiters were Lions Stan Ewig, Ben Spellar, Jim Buffington, Milton Stitt and Dale Leidig. Cleanup committee members were Lions Ernie Bixler, Jack Belvail and Murle Ogden. Lion Ted Fehring presented prizes. Mrs. Joe Oenning played the piano accompaniment for the contestants' march. Lion Dan Yurkovich was master of ceremonies. Lion Joe Oenning was in charge of games assisted by Al Wiseman and Lions John Rennels, Dr. Jim Gilman, Don Lyons and Walter Boyle.

Costume judges were Lions Stan Ewig, Dr. Jim Gilman and Ken Brown. Besides the 50 youngsters, there were 35 Lions present and three fathers, as guests, Al Wiseman, Walter Helm and A. Willis.

of scrimmage and end the Spartan scoring for the night. The Padres took the succeeding kick-off and marched 61 yards for the lock-up touchdown which was scored by Dennis Peavey on a 40-yard pass from quarterback Craig Smith. Jeff Smith's conversion kick split the uprights and Carmel was ahead to stay. With Dennis Peavey, Ron Faia, and Dare Conroy moving for big chunks of yardage, Carmel threatened the Gonzales goal several times during the second quarter only to see fumbles and penalties thwart the scoring attempts. Highlight run of the evening was Dennis Peavey's 70-yard cutback for an apparent touchdown which was nullified by a clipping infraction. The always-dangerous Spartans thoroughly tested the Padre defense throughout the game as their speed backs, Joe Montes and Jim Avecilla, continually broke away for long-gainers.

A punt blocked by Phil White set up Carmel's second touchdown in the third quarter and another partially blocked punt by Al Eaker set the stage for Carmel's third marker in the final quarter. Craig Smith sneaked over for the second score and Ronnie Faia blasted off tackle for tally number three. Jeff Smith toed one of the conversions through the uprights and the Padres finished in front, 20 to 6.

Carmel's offensive line of Sam Farr, Chris Wilkin, Mike Marquard, Deen Rowe, David Vincent, Al Eaker, Phil White, and Bill Hicks turned in a sharp blocking job to wear down the spirited Spartan defense and open the running lanes for hard-running backs, Dennis Peavey, Dare Conroy, and Ron Faia. The passing of Craig Smith and Russ Wise kept the Spartan secondary loose enough for good downfield blocking efforts by the hustling Padre forwards. Carmel's defensive standouts were sophomore John Wilkin, Steve Gann, Bill Hicks, and Al Eaker.

Carmel's junior-varsity drew out to a 13-0 lead in the first half and increased the margin to 19-0 in the third quarter before giving up six points to the Spartan Babes in the final heat. Touchdowns were tallied by Mike Draper, David Hansen, and quarterback Frank Mayo. Outstanding feature of the Carmel offense was the passing of Mayo who hit his receivers with pinpoint accuracy. Spearheading the defense for the Little Padres were tackles Brian LeNoue and Toby Edson who did a powerful job of stopping the swift Gonzales cutbacks and reverses. Linebackers Fred Bucher and Paul Rice did a professional job behind the small Carmel line while the pass defense of Mike Draper and Frank Mayo throttled the ever-dangerous Spartan aerial game.

Swanson's Open New Children's Shop

Aunt Mary's Childrens Shop, catering to youngsters in age groups from infants to size fourteen, will open Saturday on Lincoln Street, in the new building recently completed opposite the Church of the Wayfarer by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vecki. Owners of the shop are Mrs. Georgette Swanson, formerly of Illinois, and her daughter, Mary Swanson, for whom the shop is named.

A Victorian decor has been chosen by the owners as background to their stock of children's apparel, gifts, toys and infants' bedding.

Georgette and Mary Swanson's story is a familiar one—they visited Carmel, were enchanted, and decided one day to come back and find a shop, which they did.

Mr. and Mrs. Vecki recently completed their two-store structure on the property once occupied by a Carmel cottage which has housed a number of tenants, among them Senator Fred Farr, who used the picturesque cottage as law offices. The cottage later was removed to make way for the pair of contemporary stores now erected on the property.

and county officials may not be increased during their term of office. This amendment would empower supervisors and city councils to increase such officials' salaries during tenure. There have been occasions when each of the three Carmel city clerks we have known have spoken out freely against some project of the city council which they thought was not good. An elective official, he is independent of the council, responsible to the voters. If his salary increase depended on the good will of the council, would he still be our independent official? This operates on the county level as well. There is a second provision in this amendment which is also undesirable, but the above should be enough. No.

15. Repeals the blue law which now prohibits boxing matches on Sunday and Memorial Day. Yes.

16. Would tax school property of religious and other non-profit organizations. The reasons in its favor are philosophical, the reasons against, practical. No.

17. Reduce state sales tax from 3 to 2 cents and lower bracket state income tax from 1 to ½ cents; hoist upper bracket income tax to 46 percent. Legislature may not increase sales and use taxes, and income taxes may be changed only by the vote of the people. The increase in income taxes would not make up the loss in sales tax. The state would have to put sales tax on exempt items. It is not likely that payroll industries would come to or remain in a state with a 46 percent income tax. No.

18. Right to Work amendment. If we thought this would "bust the unions" we certainly would not vote for it. The responsible unions which serve their members honestly have nothing to fear from "open shop." We refer you to the railroad brotherhoods, for decades in this state, open shop. This measure should give irresponsible unions which have lost control of their leadership an opportunity to regain it, to recognize and assume their responsibility to the community and regain the public support they have lost. Yes.

General chairman for the Kiwanis Hallowe'en party is Bob Connell. Former Kiwanian Ed Neroda is providing materials to build the reviewing stand. Andy Del Monte, also a former Kiwanian, is assisting with arrangements. All Kiwanis members will gather at the playfield at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, construct the stand and prepare for the evening's celebration. After it is ended they will dissassemble the stand, clean the grounds, dump the rubbish in a street department truck and take it away. By 10:00 o'clock there will be no trace of spooks on the Sunset playfield.

P.T.A. Carnival Takes In $3,365

Gross receipts of last Saturday's Girls' League—High School P.T.A. Scholarship Carnival amounted to $3,365, according to Miss Dorothy Wright, High School vice principal and Girls' League sponsor. The P.T.A. raised $965 of this amount, the Girls' League $2,400 with student-run concessions.

Miss Wright stated that when all returns are in the net amount realized should be close to $2,800. During the school year Girls' League fund raising events, such as cake sales, and orders filled for P.T.A. iron bird baths, should raise the total Carnival Scholarship Fund to $3,000, she added.

This money will provide college scholarships for graduating seniors. Last June four High School seniors received scholarships totaling $2,000.

"However," concluded Miss Wright, "more money is needed for more scholarships each year as there are more deserving students in each bigger graduating class."

them to reverse an unfavorable density control decision made by the planning commission.

Last week Mr. Stoops asked planning commissioners for permission to move four existing units to another location on his multiple dwelling site on Mission Street southeast of Seventh Avenue, and to add six new units.

Planning commissioners denied his request on the grounds that ten units on the property would mean only 800 square feet of site per unit instead of the 1000 square feet which they favored.

This was the first time the planning commission had used their new population density control amendment to the interim zoning ordinance, requested by the city council and enacted last month.

With two terms behind him, Teague's re-election will give him seniority which his opponent lacks. Let's not sacrifice experienced legislative leadership for an inexperienced candidate.
